

Kreissparkasse
Reutlingen

COMMERCIAL & SAVINGS BANK

Kreissparkasse Reutlingen was founded in 1853 under public law. It is an independent commercial and savings bank. With approx. 900 employees and 38 branches within the town of Reutlingen and in our business area we are the leading bank in the county of Reutlingen.

As a regional bank we have always been very much concerned with the well being of our small and medium sized business clients in the county of Reutlingen. On one hand we feel responsible for the business region Reutlingen as a whole, on the other we are convinced that we will eventually benefit from a vital region with successful SME´s operating in healthy economic climate. Due to our long term relationship policy we are familiar with all specific challenges arising in SME´s, we know all senior executives, and we can adapt to the individual needs of each and every single client - in short: we do business in very close proximity to the challenges and individual needs of our corporate customers.
